

VanEck Australian Subordinated Debt ETF

SUBD invests in a portfolio of subordinated bonds with the aim of providing investment returns, before fees and other costs, that track the performance of the Index.

SUBD

Benefits

Investment grade subordinated bonds

Access a portfolio of regulatory Tier 2 Capital investment grade credit quality subordinated floating rate bonds that rank ahead of Additional Tier 1 Capital bonds such as listed hybrids.

Potential to protect against rising rates

Subordinated bonds pay coupons (interest) that vary with short-term interest rates and interest rates are reset periodically resulting in reduced duration (interest rate risk).

Yield premium

Subordinated bonds offer a higher yield, commensurate with risk.

The table above shows past performance of the ETF from 28 October 2019 and of the Index from 30 June 2016. Results are calculated to the last business day of the month and assume immediate reinvestment of distributions. ETF results are net of management fees and costs, but before brokerage fees or bid/ask spreads incurred when investors buy/sell on the ASX. Returns for periods longer than one year are annualised. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of current or future performance which may be lower or higher.

Key risks

An investment in our Australian Subordinated Debt ETF carries risks associated with: subordinated debt, bond markets generally, interest rate movements, issuer default, credit ratings, fund operations, liquidity and tracking an index. See the VanEck Australian Subordinated Debt ETF PDS and TMD for more details.
