The table above shows past performance of the ETF from 26 June 2015. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of current or future performance which may be lower or higher.

*The Blended Index shows the relevant index performance from the ETF Inception Date. The current Index (XINA50AN) performance history is shown for the previous 10 years. Blended Index performance is shown from the ETF Inception Date. Results are calculated to the last business day of the month and assume immediate reinvestment of dividends. ETF results are net of management fees and costs, but before brokerage fees or bid/ask spreads incurred when investors buy/sell on the ASX. Index performance excludes cost of investing in the ETF. Performance data for periods longer than one year are annualised.

Since 23 April 2020, the fund has operated as VanEck FTSE China A50 ETF, and aims to track the FTSE China A50 Index (current investment objective). Prior to 23 April 2020 the fund operated under the name VanEck China CSI 300 ETF and aimed to track the CSI 300 Index (old investment objective). In the Blended Index, performance data from 23 April 2020 onwards reflects the fund's current investment objective, while performance data prior to 23 April 2020 reflects the old investment objective.
