

VanEck Small Companies Masters ETF

MVS is an Australian small caps ETF, giving investors exposure to a diversified portfolio of ASX-listed small companies. This Australian small companies ETF aims to provide investment returns, before fees and other costs, that track the performance of the Index.

MVS

Benefits

Growth potential for strong returns

Small companies provide emerging opportunities that incur higher risk but offer potentially higher growth.

Systematic approach to small companies investing

Captures emerging companies opportunities by focusing on those with GARP (growth at a reasonable price) attributes.

Diversified exposure

A portfolio that includes a wide range of emerging companies and sectors including healthcare, industrials, resources, technology, energy and more – all with one trade on ASX.

The table above shows past performance of MVS from 26 May 2015. Effective 23 September 2024 MVS' reference index changed from MVIS Australia Small-Cap Dividend Payers Index ('old index') to MarketGrader Australia Small Cap 60 Index ('new index') with a change to the investment objective. Index* includes the old index performance from 26 May 2015 and the new index performance from 23 September 2024 onwards. Results are calculated to the last business day of the month and assume immediate reinvestment of dividends. ETF results are net of management fees and costs, but before brokerage fees or bid/ask spreads incurred when investors buy/sell on the ASX. Index performance excludes cost of investing in the ETF. Returns for periods longer than one year are annualised. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of current or future performance which may be lower or higher.

Key risks

An investment in the ETF carries risks associated with: financial markets generally, individual company management, industry sectors, stock and sector concentration, fund operations and tracking an index. See the VanEck Small Companies Masters ETF PDS and TMD for more details.
